Important Reductions on Women's and Misses' Winter Suits

47 Suits, formerly $25.00 and $29.50, reduced to $19.95

24 Suits, formerly $39.50 to $49.50, reduced to $35.00

8 Suits, formerly $65.00 and $79.50, reduced to $49.50

Into these three groups we have swept some of the most voguish suits of our winter showings that would be quite popular at their original prices for many weeks to come. Yet every one must go, and you will be lucky to get them at these prices so early in the season. Wool velour, suedine, marleene and tricotine, some with a mannish tailoring and some trimmed with fur or embroidery. Rich winter colorings of brown, black and navy blue. Besides a full range of sizes for misses and medium size women, there is a good selection of extra size models.

PRESIDENT GREET'S FRATERNITY BOYS

Members of Three Societies in Convention Here Visit White House.

Three fraternities holding conventions in Washington this week were received by President Harding at the White House today. They are the Phi Sigma Kappa, which is holding its twentieth biennial convention; the Delta Kappa Epsilon, holding its twenty-eighth national convention; and the Pi Tau Pi, a local Jewish fraternity, which is holding its ninth annual convocation. Each one has extensive programs, which include business meetings and many social functions to take place between now and Saturday.

The Sigma Kappa and the Delta Kappa Epsilon opened their business meetings in the Willard Hotel yesterday, while the Pi Tau Pi met in the Raleigh Hotel.

The Delta Kappa Epsilon is represented by delegates from forty-three chapters. Tomorrow the delegates will visit the grave of Admiral Peary at Arlington cemetery, where Senator Seldon P. Spencer of Missouri will speak, and a wreath will be placed on the grave. Admiral Peary was a member of the fraternity and is said to have placed the flag of the fraternity beside the United States flag at the north pole.

The Phi Sigma Kappa, following a business meeting and an election of officers Saturday morning, will visit Arlington and place a wreath upon the grave of the "unknown soldiers." Its program will conclude with a banquet in the Willard Hotel Saturday night.

The Pi Tau Pi will attend the Washington Hebrew Congregation Church tomorrow evening, where Rabbi Abram Simon, president of the board of education, will deliver a sermon on "Youth and the New Fraternity." The program is to conclude Saturday, when it will elect officers and choose a place for the 1923 convocation.

UPBUILDING IS TOPIC.

William K. Cooper Addresses Recently Formed Newcomers' Club.

A graphic description of a recent trip through the extreme southwestern section of the country, together with many timely suggestions for the upbuilding of their recently formed organization, was given by William Knowles Cooper, president of the Rotary Club, to members of the Newcomers' Club, at the City Club Tuesday.

Mr. Cooper stressed the "wonderful good" being accomplished throughout the world by such civic-betterment organizations, and said that there could not be too many of the kind. The speaker spoke of the great growth of the state of Oklahoma, and recited many of his amusing personal experiences while in that section.

Joseph A. Burkhardt presided, and congratulated his clubmates on the "splendid spirit" shown by the members during the Christmas holidays, when each Newcomer personally visited some deserving poor family.

CHINESE BEATEN WITH SHOVEL AND ROBBED

Charlie Moy Goes to Hospital $22 Loser, After Struggle With Colored Man in Laundry.

Charlie Moy, who maintains a laundry at 806 12th street, was held up in his place last night by a young colored man. He made a fight, but was subdued by a blow on the head with a shovel. Charlie was sent to the hospital by Detectives Walsh and Keck, where a scalp wound was dressed. In the cash register, he said, was $22, which was taken by the robber.

Frank Rose, apartment 20, 1820 California street, told the police that an intruder was in his apartment last night between 6 and 8 o'clock and stole wearing apparel valued at $325 and a savings bank containing $10. Rose offered a reward for the capture of the thief, who used a duplicate key.

John E. Huston, a Pullman porter, residing at 101 West 140th street, New York city, reached Union station early this morning and had occasion to go to a nearby hotel. While there, he told the police, he was robbed of a watch and chain valued at $60.
